

KAU Little League is proud to offer pre-season Instructional Baseball Skills Lessons at its Training Facility on Leslie Road

Players ages 8 years and up may sign up for a five-week session of semi-private lessons. Instruction may include pitching, catching, hitting, and fielding, depending on the needs of the player. Four players will share one hour of facility time per week with two instructors, and each will be given individualized attention. Cost is $150.00 for the five-week session*. Three sessions are currently available:

Session 1 begins Saturday, Nov. 26, ends Friday, January 6.

No lessons 12/24/11 through 12/30/2011 .

Session 2 begins Saturday, January 7, ends Friday, February 10

Session 3 begins Saturday, February 11, ends Friday, March 16

AFTER SCHOOL SPECIAL!!! Hang with Coach Robinson for one-hour (3:30-4:30pm or 4:30-5:30pm) on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during Sessions 1 & 2 for $100.00 per session.

Training facility instructional time may be reserved by logging onto kaulittleleague.org.

All sessions are first-come, first served.

No refunds will be given for unused time.

The Instructors

Rob Gill is an associate Scout for the Houston Astros. He has coached at Coatesville High School, in the West Chester Adult Wooden Bat League, and at Widener University. Instruction by Coach Gill will include basic pitching technique skills as well as hitting and catching.

Mike Robinson is President of KAU Little League, the Junior Varsity Coach at Kennett High School, and a long-time coach of KAU summer Big League Teams. Coach Robinson will offer instruction on the skills needed to become a better all-around baseball player, as well as specific instruction on hitting, pitching, catching and fielding.

Dan Gardo is a graduate of West Chester Henderson High School, where he pitched his way to a berth on the 2006 Carpenter Cup Team. The following year, Dan was chosen as an Atlantic Collegiate League All-Star when he played for the Kutztown Rockies. After graduation, he pitched for Campbell University (Div. I - Atlantic Sun Conference). Coach Dan will offer pitching instruction to players.
